

INTERIOR DESIGN[®]

MAY 31
2021

*the shape
of things*
spring market
tabloid

5

6

7

8

Sebastián Ángeles
for Breuer

5

Enrico Fratesi and Stine Gam
for Poltrona Frau

6

Paola Navone
for Baxter

7

Lara Bohinc
of Bohinc Studio

8

product Trasiego
standout The Mexican industrial designer's stellar oak rack—part of an eight-piece collection including benches, tables, a stool, and a chair—welcomes coats (and sitters) with its megawatt personality. breuerstudio.com

product Plot
standout GamFratesi's room divider harks back to 1950s accessories while fulfilling today's yen for nomadic designs, its minimalist aluminum-tubing structure (with elegant brass details) woven with proprietary leather in a geometric pattern. poltronafrau.com

product Piombino
standout A plane of industrial concrete—that Brutalist staple—plus bronze-varnish aluminum legs add up to a low-lying coffee table by the prolific Italian designer and Hall of Famer. Through DDC. ddnyc.com product Collision

standout From the London designer's Lunar collection inspired by orbital planetary movement, a brass-finish galvanized-steel console featuring Carrara and Nero Marquina marbles is bisected (and supported) by a bold pink onyx disc. bohincstudio.com ➤